

Press Release No.74

Date: 08.04.2019

It is a matter of great pride and recognition to find that the Anna University and the Presidency College and Loyola College of the Madras University have earned top honours in the India rankings 2019 released by the Hon'ble President of India at a function organised by the Ministry of Human Resource and Development in New Delhi today.

The achievement of Anna University which has secured the 7th position in the category of Universities and the 9th position in the category of Engineering institutions is indeed remarkable and praiseworthy. The 3rd ranking secured by the Presidency College and the 6th rank secured by Loyola College in the category of colleges mark them out to be outstanding and top match institutions in the sphere of higher education.

I congratulate the Vice-Chancellors, Principals, the faculty and students of these Universities and Colleges and convey my best wishes and greetings to the faculty and students of all those educational institutions who have brought glory to the state through their achievements.
