Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu, Thiru. Banwarilal Purohit appreciated Selvi. M.Nethra for her service during Corona Virus lockdown

It is a proud moment for Tamil Nadu that United Nations Association for Development And Peace (UNADAP) appointed Selvi. M. Nethra, daughter of Thiru. C. Mohan, a salon owner in Madurai as its 'Goodwill Ambassador to the Poor'.

Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, Thiru. Narendra Modiji during his monthly radio programme 'Mann Ki Baat' has praised Thiru C.Mohan, father of Selvi M. Nethra for spending his entire savings to help people in distress during this Corona Virus pandemic and subsequent lockdowns.

Thiru C. Mohan, who is the owner of a small salon at Madurai and saved Rs.5 lakh over a period for daughter's education. When he and his daughter saw the sufferings of the people due to Covid-19 lock down, they immediately came forward to help the people in distress by spending their entire savings. It's great yeomen service. I am touched by this great gesture of his family and I wholeheartedly appreciate the nobleness of hearts of duo father and daughter. Only large-hearted person like Thiru Mohan can do so.

Selvi M. Nethra may get an opportunity to address upcoming United Nations (UN) conferences in New York and Geneva and to speak to Civil Society forums, world leaders from various fields. It is highly appreciable. I appeal to all the student community to come forward and follow the activities rendered by her to the society in this pandemic situation. Thiru Mohan and Selvi Netra have become role models for others to emulate in any crisis situation. India and Tamil Nadu needs such leaders from the society. I salute this family and once again congratulate Selvi. M. Nethra for her achievement.
